Remembering Our Heroes June 2011

On June 15, 2012 the Museum of Texas Tech University will host the World War II exhibit. Our goal is to educate our young generation and to bring awareness to the community about the patriotic sacrifices of the greatest generation. Remembering Our Heroes will include a collaboration with other community museums: The Silent Wings Museum and The Science Spectrum.

We hope to include a recognition honoring our area Veterans and commemorating their service. We also hope to have a special display of Peter Heard sketches from WWII to enhance the exhibit. Bob Hope's USO Road Show will be the entertainment for the Gala evening featuring our local celebrities which will be written and produced by Gerald Dolter, Music Theater Department of Texas Tech University.

We hope you will help us in supporting and celebrating of our American Heroes.
